Phnom Penh, 20 July 2021

Dear Mrs. Gerda HASSELFELDT

I am deeply saddened to learn about the recent severe flooding in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia and Rhineland-Palatinate on 15 July, which more than one hundred of lives have been lost and thousands of victims are still missing.

On behalf of the Central Committee, members, staff, volunteers and youth of the Cambodian Red Cross and on my personal behalf, I would like to extend my sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy through the German Red Cross to all those who in this catastrophes lost their loved ones. May I pray for the speedy recovery to those injured and successful rescue of those missing and the rapid restoration of the flood-ravage areas.

Please accept, Mrs. Gerda HASSELFELDT, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely Yours,
President

Samdech Kittipritthindit BUN RANY HUNSEN
